WEST VALLEY COLLEGE, a tale of two campuses.....SARATOGA (top) facilities in first permanent college building in Saratoga were still a trifle incomplete this week.

CAMPBELL (bottom) College students at the "temporary" campus in Campbell for the first time almost filled the Rincon Ave. parking lot.

Schools open

From kindergarten through junior college, young people of the community headed back to the classrooms this week.

Monday was a holiday so classes officially began on Tuesday in a majority of the cases. (St. Lucy's Catholic School opened last week.)

For the Campbell Union High School District the beginning of the fall term had a new significance...A new high school, Prospect, on Prospect Ave. opened with Verdun Romer as principal.

But it has been commonplace to open new schools in the high school district during the past 12 years.

Since 1956, there have been 11 new high schools, plus the continuation high school on Williams, built and opened.

But Prospect could possibly be the last new high school to be built in the district.

The school year that began this week marks another important milestone for the high school district.

Dr. Nicholas Montesano, assistant superintendent for the past several years, starts the year with a new title, "superintendent designate".

RENO or BUST via 1926 Model-T Ford

By Sally Howe

Some folks never feel quite right until they've repaid a courtesy, and some might think that the Henry Franks, 761 Pollard Rd. are taking their social obligations too seriously.

Two years ago, the Franks were treated to a plane trip to Reno piloted by their lifelong friend and former neighbor, John Bogner of Santa Cruz, and his wife.

Recently, Mrs. Frank told John Bogner that she'd love to do the same for him, but that all she had to offer was her husband's restored 1926 Model T-Ford Touring car. "We're game," said the Bogners, and that's why there's a "Reno or Bust" sign on the back of the Frank auto. Persons heading for Sacramento on Thursday just might see the foursome, speeding down the highway at a fast 30 miles per hour clip.

Interestingly enough, the car was purchased by Frank in Reno about four years ago. It was away back in the hills above Sparks, Nevada, stored in a potato shed, and in running (barely) condition. For the next two years, Frank put about $2000 in parts into the car--and about $5000 in labor! He wrote letters all over the country looking for parts and attending car club exchange meets and scrutinizing magazines. Since the car's completion two years ago he has driven it at least twice a week during favorable weather--and even drove it down to the Ford agency when he bought his wife a Mustang. That got some attention!

The longest haul the 42 year old beauty has made before was to San Francisco, so how long this trip will take is a guess. It's gas tank only holds [illegible] gallons (although it averages 17 miles to the gallon) so there will be fairly frequent stops.

Both men are ranchers and natives of the area, as are their wives. Frank and Bogner attended kindergarten at West Valley College--when it was Campbell Grammar School! We asked what kind of crops they'd had this year on their Patterson ranches. Replies Bogner: "Well, we flew up there two years ago after the season, this year we're going in a Model T."

Gomes Ranch sale ends era

"Campbell, the orchard city".....

This city's official nickname, "the orchard city", had sort of a hollow sound this week with the announcement that the Gomes Ranch had been sold and will be developed.

The nickname may have been appropriate in 1952 when Campbell was incorporated. But over the years it has become less and less descriptive of this community.

And now the Gomes Ranch..

In a letter to the City Manager, Bob Stephens, this week, Alfred A. Morici, president of Morici Corporation, a realty development agency at 51 N. First St., San Jose, announced that his firm had purchased the 30-acre Joseph Gomes Ranch in Campbell.

The Gomes Ranch, located between Hamilton and Latimer avenues, is one of the few remaining ranch-sized orchard properties still within the city limits.

The Brynteson Ranch, a 30-acre plus orchard at Bascom and Campbell avenues, which was sold to Fred Sahadi in February and the trees subsequently removed, was another large-sized chunk that was a victim of "progress" this year.

Morici informed the city manager that they objected to the zoning land use of the "701" planning study that would put the entire ranch in a multi-family zone.

He said that his firm planned soon to apply for commercial zoning on the westerly half of the Hamilton Ave. frontage to a depth of 300-feet. He indicated that the multi-family zoning for the balance of the property would meet with their approval.

Morici indicated that his firm would file for the new zoning before the end of September.

The sale of the Gomes Ranch virtually marks an end to an era. The late Joseph Gomes, was a Stanford law graduate, but "farmed" the home ranch and other properties in the county and never practiced law.

He was elected to the first Campbell city council in 1952 and for many years was a member of the Campbell Union High School board, serving as board chairman on many occasions.

Buy-your-own-shrub-club to raise $$$$ for park

It could be called Name-Your-Shrub Club.

Campbell residents interested in seeing the city's newly-created mini-park at Alice Ave. and Winchester Blvd. "burst" into bloom can help the situation along through a novel plan of contributing toward the financing of the landscaping, according to Mrs. Jeanette Watson, chairman of Campbell Citizens for Beautification.

Residents on Alice Ave. and beautification committee members who have been spearheading the drive to transform the prominent weed patch into a miniature park, have indicated that they thought enough citizens would be interested in the development of the little park to contribute money to the undertaking.

When the committe presented the park plan to the City Council for approval no city money was asked for and none was allocated.

Shrubbery for the little park, according to the plan developed by the Cambrian Nursery, will cost about $351 and there will be additional items needed such as redwood, gravel, etc.

According to Mrs. Watson, 189 plants and shrubs will be needed for the mini-park ranging in cost from $1.50 to $6.50 each.

The nurserymen have itemized the plants using their Latin names for the 17 different varieties that are recommended in the landscaping plan.

To the layman the list means junipers, pines, bottle brush, agapantha, etc.

According to Mrs. Watson, those wishing to contribute to the park landscaping fund can specify what shrubs and plants they want their money to go for, following the adopted plan.

For example, Mrs. Watson explains, 52 "agapantha Peter Pan" costing $1.50 each are needed, for a total of $78. A nice round figure she adds...

But then only one Japanese black pine is needed which costs $6...That, too, would be acceptable as a contribution, the committee chairman adds.

As a matter of fact, con-

City residents, to get 'pickup'

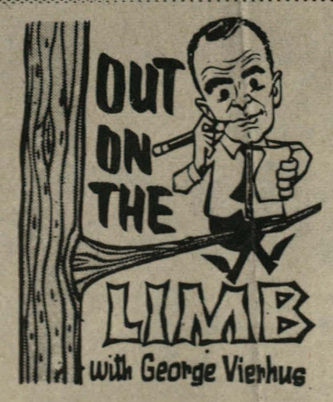
Campbell's residents get their second chance this year to clean out surplus trash, lawn clippings, tree trimmings, and other items small enough to fit into containers when Green Valley Disposal conducts a free pickup on Sept. 27.

The pickup is for residents of the city of Campbell only who are customers in good standing with Green Valley Disposal Co. No furniture, appliances, dirt or rocks will be taken.

A pickup last May was preceded by a volunteer citizen clean-up which saw 29 truckloads of goods hauled away. This clean-up however, will be limited to bundles which can be handled by one person.

REGISTER NOW

Thurs. Sept. 12, is the last day for voter registration. In order to vote in the November presidential election voters must be registered. Registration booths are being manned at both Campbell fire stations, 51 N. Central and 775 Sunnyoaks Ave., from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.



THIS IS IN ANSWER TO those who still maintain that ZADIE SPRINGER, our most severe critic, is a figment of our imagination.

There IS such a person and that person resides in Campbell.

Admittedly some of the letters we have received from Zadie, including the one we published in this column last week, are a little far out.

On good authority we have learned that Zadie exists.

But we will not disillusion you by attempting to describe her.

Why spoil a good thing, you should paint your own picture.

To those who tuned in late, may we point out that Zadie, in her most recent critique of this column, condemned us for attacking the police. She likened us to the long-haired hooligans, draft card burners and communists who are "causing all the trouble today."

All we did was to lambast the San Jose police for setting up their radar speed trap in the 300-yard San Jose strip in Campbell, on W. Campbell Ave.

We did not condemn the police per se.

But we did think that particular assignment for the San Jose cops was just plain stupid.

On the other hand, we suppose we should not be surprised at this maneuver on the part of San Jose police.

After Chicago undoubtedly a new book on public relations will have to be written for police anyway.

Present company (we mean John Morgan and his crew) excepted.

ONE WOMAN WAS SO incensed by Zadie's letter to us that she called to say that she would like to meet her face-to-face.

She wanted the opportunity to tell her off.

But we were quick to spring to Zadie Springer's defense.

We don't mind her sounding off, if you don't.

As we have said before Zadie adds zest.

Provided, of course, you are not too concerned with the facts of any case.

A DISGUSTING SITUATION was called to our attention last week by Ken Hickman, superintendent of public works.

Ken showed us what some warped individuals had done in the space of a few hours to the boys' restroom at Campbell Park on Gilman Ave.

It was unbelievable, in a sort of horrible animal-like way.

We took a picture. But, obviously, it can never be used in a community newspaper.

With our notoriously weak stomach, shooting that picture while gagging was quite a feat. You can understand why the results were a little fuzzy.

But we learned that ours was not the only weak stomach in the group.

We overheard Ken Hickman apologetically asking Herm Rice to clean up the mess.

Ken said that he would be useless to have around.

He had never been able to even change the diapers on his kids, he told Herm.

We note that we described it above as "unbelievable in a sort of horrible animal-like way".

Our apologies to the animal kingdom.

No animal would ever act like that.

PERIODICALLY THE disposal company that has the franchise in Campbell for picking up trash and garbage gets put on the spot.

It has been our observation that on the whole Green Valley Disposal Co. (the name now used instead of Los Gatos Scavenger Co.) does a pretty fair job.

There are exceptions, of course.

It has also been our observation that from time to time some customers of the disposal company become up-

Editorial

The "follow-through"

A steering committee headed by the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, pastor of Campbell's First United Methodist Church and a director of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, is presently planning for the third Congress for Community Progress, sponsored by the C of C.

No civic project has ever received such an overwhelming endorsement from the community as a whole.

Indications are that the third "Congress" which is scheduled for next March will be more successful than the previous ones simply because the organizers and committee members have learned a great deal from the past two sessions.

They know that the interest in the "Congress" is increasing.

More and more they find that the average resident is beginning to want to learn about his community and the "Congress" gives him that opportunity.

But one of the most significant developments of the "Congress" is that those who have attended sessions are anxious and curious to learn if the recommendations that were made are being carried out.

We think this is extremely important.

Recommendations mean very little, if there is no follow-through.

In this regard, we think the current report by City Manager Bob Stephens on suggested actions and developments of the recommendations submitted to the City of Campbell by the Chamber of Commerce is of vital concern to all.

The C of C, sponsors of the "Congress", submitted recommendations to the city pertaining to local governmental services; streets and transportation; industrial and commercial development; social development and opportunities; youth direction; parks and recreation; and Campbell's image.

In his report to the City Council, the city manager first listed the recommendation and then traced any development that had taken place since the Congress.

He pointed out, for example, the city government must attempt to assist families displaced by any civic development in the downtown area. The Congress recommendation had expressed concern in this matter.

The city is reviewing its planned development zoning ordinance as recommended by the Congress.

Other comments on the Congress recommendations under "local government service":

The city is working with Green Valley Disposal Co. for improved service; the city is constantly trying to improve its communications with the citizens; the city has provided funds for temporary work for youths in city parks;

Under the "streets" and "transportation" recommendations, the city manager reported:

The city should try to improve the posting of bus-stops and continue study of how the mini-bus system could be worked into the overall public transportation plan for the county.

The city plans to initiate a more active annexation program that "islands" can benefit from the street improvement bond funds. The city and school districts are working together in many fields, including crossing guards and recreation. And an even more extensive program is planned in the future.

The "industrial and commercial" recommendations of the Congress, suggested that access to the industrial areas at the Camden-San Tomas interchange be improved. The city manager reported that it was hoped when the project was completed the situation would be vastly improved.

The city manager suggested with respect to the recommendation that a theme be developed to promote the downtown core that the design of the new civic center complex could help matters in this respect.

The "Congress" has asked that the quality of development on Hamilton Ave. be preserved. The city manager points out that '701' program is more or less determining the future land use for all areas.

Under the "social development" recommendation which suggested an upgrading in the recreation program with school districts taking a more active part in providing facilities, the city manager reports that the Parks and Recreation Commission is presently deeply involved in a study of all phases of the city's recreational program.

In addition, the commission is also working on a master plan for Rincon Park, another Congress recommendation.

Another recommendation of the Congress was that the city stage a clean-sweep and beautification campaign. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jeanette Watson, such a campaign has been underway for several months.

We believe that this report of the city manager indicates how valuable the "Congress" can be to the community.

Not only will definite recommendations be made by the Congress but a follow-up program has developed which will indicate what action has been taken or is planned.

Like in so many other instances the "follow-through" is often the most important part.

set over something the company has or has not done in the way of service.

Sometimes the situation is blown clear out of proportion. At other times, however, the air is cleared a great deal and a better understanding results between client and agent because of the blow-up.

Just recently a disposal company patron and one of the employees of the company became enmeshed in dispute over what can be and what can't be placed in the garbage can.

ONE THING LED TO another, specifically name-calling for which apologies were rightfully demanded.

But that's not our point.

We have always maintained that lack of consideration on both sides has been the cause in most instances of these flare-ups in this business of picking-up trash and garbage.

It takes a lot of understanding, for this business of picking up after people can become pretty sticky on both sides.

There are some definite rules that householders should follow in this matter of garbage and trash disposal.

However, most householders are either vague or ignorant of what is supposedly required of them.

Frankly we are not aware of all the rules. We have never bothered to find out, although we have intended to often enough.

For example, we think there must be something about the maximum weight of the can's contents.

We haven't bothered to check on this weight bit. We sort of go by the rules-of-the-back (ours). If the can is not too heavy for us to lug it out, we figure the garbage man can handle it.

But we suppose there is a definite figure to go by.

WE SUPPOSE THERE may be some rule about what cannot go in a garbage can.

But even among the most knowledgable people on this subject apparently there is some misunderstanding on this point.

One time a number of years ago, we filled our can with dirt from our yard. The guy left it with a note stating that they didn't pick up dirt.

But we don't know whether it was because of the excess weight or because it was dirt per se.

We submit that plain dirt dirt is often cleaner than some of the other stuff that finds its way into the container.

Recently a patron complained that the garbage people refused to dump a can in which there were rocks.

Again we don't know whether the refusal was based on weight or for other reasons.

At a recent City Council meeting one councilman complained that his pickup had been refused by the refuse man because there were ashes in the trash can. The reason in that case could not have been because of excess weight.

Another councilman, who had done a little research on the matter, pointed out that ashes were among the items prohibited because of potential fire hazard.

He added, however, he could find nothing in the rules prohibiting rocks.

But when we hear about these backyard verbal battles between the picker-uppers and the putter-inners we are always amazed.

The issue must be of major importance.

Because for us to crawl out of bed and confront any person at the ungodly hour that the garbage people are crashing and clanging around it would almost take a catastrophe.

We don't put rocks-in-the-can in that category—yet.

IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED that a bust of Benjamin Campbell, the founder of this town, could be placed in the new mini-park that is planned at Alice Ave. and Winchester Blvd.

We have nothing against such a suggestion. We think it would be a good idea to have the old Ben so honored.

But we think a better location for a bust of Ben would be the little park at the railroad tracks by the stately walnut trees, this city's "official" and only landmark.

Those walnut trees, by the way, were planted by descendants of Ben.

He has been picked to succeed Laurance J. Hill, CUHS district superintendent for the past 22 years.

Hill came to the district in 1946 when the enrollment of the one high school was 527.

This week more than 13,000 were enrolled in the eight regular high schools and at Williams.

This year will also begin a new chapter for West Valley College.

For the first time since the college opened in 1964, students will be using a building on the permanent campus in Saratoga.

But the "temporary" campus in Campbell, used since 1964 by the college, the old Campbell Grammar School property at Winchester and Campbell avenues, was still virtually overflowing.

College students apparently paid some heed to the appeals of college officials to use the Rincon Ave. parking lot. Observers of the scene thought the lot was being used this week more extensively than ever before.

But the residential streets adjacent to the college were also jammed with students' cars.

The elementary schools serving the area, Campbell, Moreland and Cambrian, faced their usual growth problems, although there were no "new" schools in the districts.

Some school officials have even indicated that they thought a "leveling off" situation could be developing, for the first time in more than 20 years.

Bike auction

Sept. 21 has been set for the semi-annual auction by the Campbell police department of the accumulated unclaimed found property which has been turned over to the police department.

Capt. Don Burr stated that a total of 39 bikes will go on the auction block. Also included will be an assortment of tape decks, automotive tires, a 35 mm camera, tachometer and miscellaneous other items. The auction will start at 10 a.m. in the parking lot of the city hall, 75 N. Central Ave.

To date $108 has been contributed, Mrs. Watson noted, mostly from residents on Alice Ave.

Interested citizens wanting to contribute may send their donations to the Beautification committee care of the City Hall at 75 N. Central or call Mrs. Watson for further information.

Plans are still in the indefinite stage, Mrs. Watson said, but it is hoped that the planting will take place in October and will include a special program to recognize the contributors, including members in good standing of the name-your-own-shrub-club.

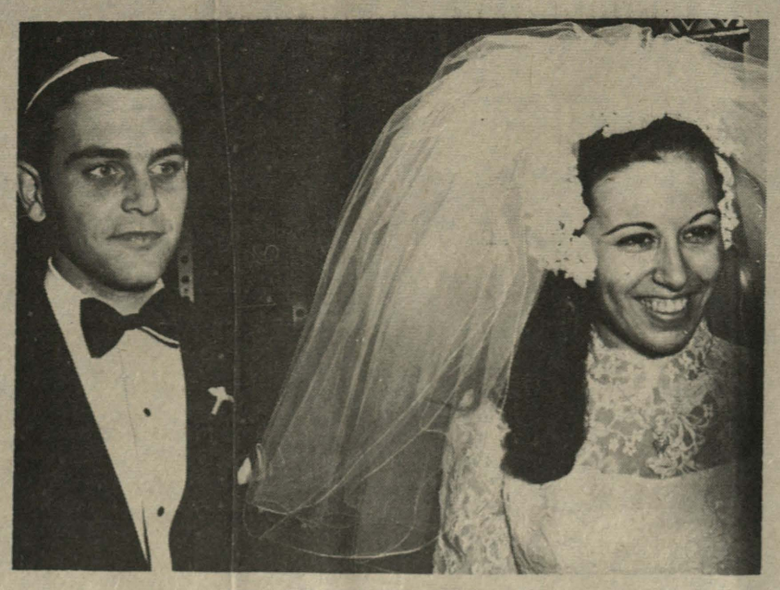
Evening wedding rites



MR. AND MRS. JEFFERY ABER

The Temple Emanu-el was the setting for the August 17 evening wedding of Janice Marzano and Jeffrey Meil Aber. The Rabbi Joseph Gitin performed the double ring ceremony.

For her wedding day Janice chose an elegant silk organza and Mencon lace ivory wedding gown. The fitted Empire bodice of Alencon lace featured a high wedding ring neckline and three-quarter length bishop sleeves topped a slim "A" line organza skirt. The detachable train watteaued from above the waist back into a chapel train. Her four tiered bouffant silk illusion veil was held with an ivory Alencon spray caplet trimmed with lillies of the valley, and she carried three Phalaenopsis centered with stephanotis and white baby roses.

Janice is the daughter of Mrs. Peter Marzano of San Jose and Peter Marzano of June Lake, California, who gave their daughter in marriage.

She was graduated from San Jose State College in 1968.

Four bridesmaids and the matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Seavers, were gowned in ribbed ottoman floor length, sleeveless dresses featuring high bateau necklines, squared low backs and accented with full watteau skirts. The bridesmaids, Mesdames Samuel Wien, John Brandt, and Ray Raineri, Jr. and Miss Patricia Hados gowns were iced blue while the matron of honor complimented them in iced nile. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marzano wore a floor length sleeveless crepe gown of pastel pink with matching jewelry. Martha Wien, a niece, served as flower girl and Samuel Wien, nephew, as ring bearer.

Jeffrey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Aber, 1174 Arroyo Seco Dr. A graduate of Del Mar High school, and West Valley Junior College, he chose his brother, Michael Aber, to serve as his best man. Ushers were Frank Weisman, Randall Taylor, James McIntosh and Alan Darnel.

The groom's mother was charming in a sleeveless aqua silk chiffon gown fashioned with a high jeweled neckline, fitted bodice accented with white accessories.

A reception for 175 guests was held in the Temple social hall with music by the Peter Demmie orchestra. The three-tiered cake was decorated with pink roses carrying out the white and pink color scheme.

For her wedding trip to Carmel and New York City the new Mrs. Aber chose biege lace over shocking pink slip. The young couple will make their future home in West Germany.

59TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY--Mr. and Mrs. Tony Yerkovich, 453 Carlyn Ave. Campbell residents for the last 50 years, observed their 59th wedding anniversary in August. In observance of the festive occasion they were hosts to 21 children and grandchildren at a dinner held at the Villa Felice. The parents of four children, they have 12 grandchildren, and 15 great grandchildren. Following dinner they had cake and coffee for the entire family at their home.

The Yerkovich fruit stand on Winchester, near Payne Ave. was famous for its cherries for many years, and many local school children worked in the cherry packing sheds. Their children, Chester Yerkovich, Peter Yerkovich, Mrs. Joe Gomes and Mrs. Dan Furtado, all live in the Campbell area.

St. Lucy's class of '66, enjoys first reunion

St. Lucy's students, class-of 1966, enjoyed themselves so much they couldn't wait for five years to pass before holding their first reunion.

Last week approximately 30 members of the class held their first "two year" reunion.

Organized by Mary Munhall, Margaret Ambelang and Deborah Underwood, the successful affair was held in Kennelly hall at St. Lucy's with entertainment provided by the "Spring Fresh", dance group with Douglas Laptalo, drummer, one of the alumni members.

Many of the class of 1966 have already moved from the area, and many are residing in Europe.Among those who now call Europe home are Roger Peterson who will be attending a boarding school in Zurich, Switzerland; Thomas Bugbee, Iran and Stephen Head, Zollikon, Switzerland.

Chaperoning the successful reunion were Mrs. Lyle Ambelang, Mrs. Clifford Underwood and Mrs. Paul Werthmann.

Dancing was followed by an hour of folk singing led by Mark Harville on his guitar.

RUMMAGE SALE

Phi Epsilon Phi Sorority, Delta Chapter, San Jose, is holding a benefit rummage sale at 342 Campbell Ave., Campbell, on Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968 from 9:30 A.M. to 4 p.m.

Proceeds are to go to cancer research, which is the National Welfare Program for Phi Epsilon Phi Sorority.

Planners meet next Monday

A number of unfinished items, held over from the Planning Commission meeting of Sept. 3, will feature the commission meeting next Monday, Sept. 16.

The request of Humble Oil for a service station at the southern edge of the Campbell Plaza Shopping Center is again on the agenda, marking another step in a long drawn-out delaying action.

At the last commission meeting, the commissioners indicated they wanted more information on the traffic pattern in the area before they would act on the approval of the building plan. The commission had originally denied a use permit for the station but the City Council had overruled it.

Another continued agenda item for next Monday's meeting is the request of United Progreso Arriba for a use permit to allow the use of a duplex located at 41 W. Rincon Ave. for a senior citizens center.

At the last meeting, the commissioners got involved as to whether the duplex was adequate for assembly purposes inasmuch as it had been built for residential purposes.

On the advice of City Attorney Joe Bonacina, who felt that more information was needed on the question of public assemblage usage, the commission continued the hearing until next Monday.

At the last commission meeting also, the commission denied the use permit request of Harold Hall, operator of Crown Billiards at 1740 Winchester Blvd., for a private youth club in the building.

Commissioners in denying the request indicated that they did not think it was a good location for a youth club.

Residents on Grace Ave. adjacent to the properties in the process of being annexed to the City of Campbell were in attendance at the last commission meeting when the planners approved the prezoning of the annex territory as required by law.

The Grace Ave. residents objected to being annexed to Campbell and indicated they wanted to remain in the county.

Commissioner Jack Healey, of 1791 Grace Ave., who instigated the annexation of his property to the city, abstained during the discussion and vote on the question.

Help offered to families of drug users

Families of drug users have as much of a problem to face as the drug user, and with this thought in mind, a group of parents and relatives have been gathering every Thursday evening for the last several months at the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave.

The family group sessions are directed by June McLaughlin and questions arising at the meetings have concerned such vital questions as: "What can a parent do when he discovers his child is using drugs? What are the symptoms of a drug addict?, and, What is meant by "releasing" an addict.

Questions concerning the program may be directed to 253-1097.

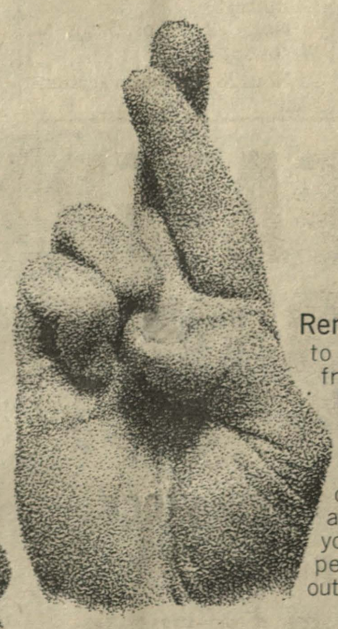
More Helpful Hints From PG&E:

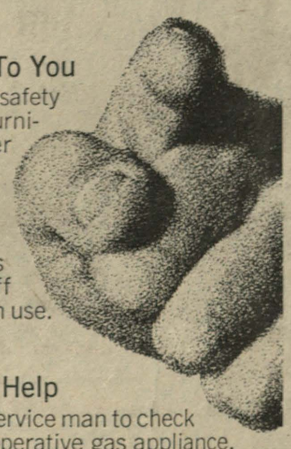
Five handy tips on household safety.



A Little Dirt or Lint can cause trouble. So make sure that burners and controls on your gas furnace, wall or floor heater are clean at all times. And clean or replace dirty furnace filters periodically.

Remember to replace broken or frayed electric cords. Make sure all electric tools are properly grounded. Never put too many appliances on one outlet. And always discourage youngsters from tampering with cords or outlets.

Get Rid Of rusted or loose fitting vent and flue pipes. Have them checked annually. And if you suspect a gas leak, CALL PG&E IMMEDIATELY.



It's Up To You to practice good home safety habits. Don't place furniture or draperies over floor furnaces. Don't let gas accumulate before lighting a burner manually. And always make sure the burners on your range are off completely when not in use.

Once A Year have your gas appliances thoroughly checked by your furnace man or plumber. While he's there he should make sure safety pilots are operating properly, air openings on burners are clean and burners set for a blue flame.

PG&E Is Ready To Help

If you call for a PG&E service man to check out any gas leak or inoperative gas appliance, ask him to show you where your gas pilots are located and how to go about relighting them. If repairs or parts are ever required for an appliance, call an appliance or furnace service man or your plumber.

By Barbara Handel

The beginning of the 1968-69 school year has begun with great enthusiasm. Several of the clubs and commissions have already started to plan for their first meetings.

The Student Council is busy planning for the Student Body Card Sales Campaign, the Welcome Dance, the Freshman Rally, and the first All School Rally which takes place during the first two weeks of school.

The fall Student Council members consist of: President, Randy Fujishin, vice-president, Gary Fischer, Secretary Paul Tokunaga, Councilmen George Akina, Mark Cunningham, Mitchell Fair, and Janie Wong, Student Manager Barbara Handel, and Assistant Student Manager Richard Panick.

During the summer, Campbell High School has received much recognition and honor. Tim Sapp and John Brydon, 1968 seniors, placed third in the National Debate Tournament at Minneapolis, Minn. Janie Wong, senior, received governorship at Girls' State and later, being one of two representatives from California, went to Washington, D. C. and became Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The 1968 football team has begun its practice and is expected to do well this year. We're hoping for another good season this year and possibly the championship again.

This years' head Varsity coach is Coach Jones. The assistant coaches are Coach Mathews and Coach Marotti.

The head Frosh-Soph coach is Coach Brooks and the assistant coach is Coach Huntze.

"The team seems to be progressing well and I'm expecting another good season," states Coach Jones.

The summer musical "The Music Man" proved to be quite successful and was enjoyed by all who participated.

AWARD WINNING DRUM MAJOR--Perry Rogers, Campbell High school drum major for the school year 1968-69 returned recently from Big Trees Drum Major Camp which serves all of California and various parts of the United States.

Out of 200 participants, he was placed in the advanced division and in the final festival competition. He received four awards: one first place, two outstanding, and one second place. He was voted an outstanding drum major by the student participants.

His trip was sponsored by the Lions Club of Campbell.

Perry, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Rogers of Campbell, will be a senior at Campbell High school this year.

Prospect Pulse

By Pat Hebard

"Panther Pride" and "Prospect Power" was demonstrated on opening day at a Welcome Rally held by the spirit commission before school Tuesday. The students witnessed the raising of the American Flag in front of the school and then returned to the center of the school to meet the cheerleaders, songgirls, drill team, and council members. Steve Shoemaker was the "master of ceremonies" for the rally.

The first football game will be with Oak Grove in the Westmont Stadium. All home games for Prospect will be held in the Westmont Stadium, as the bleachers for the Prospect Stadium have not arrived.

Students were given their schedule of classes Tuesday morning after a word from the principal Mr. Vernon Romar. Mr. Jack Wagnon will be the Vice Principal.

The dress code that was sent out to the students during the summer is expected to be kept by the students at Prospect. It is in keeping with good standards yet it allows for the latest in fashion.

Students are busy trying to find the classrooms, even the seniors. Some of the teachers are having a hard time, too. The school is built around a "quad" where rallies are held. There is a large state in the cafeteria and still another "Little Theatre" in the front part of the school. There is a boys' gym and a girls' gym and two swimming pools; one for diving competition and one for racing.

The Prospect football schedule will be:

Sept. 27 - Oak Grove at Westmont.
Oct. 4 - Saratoga at Los Gatos
Oct. 11 - Westmont at Westmont (Prospect home game)
Oct. 18 - Camden at Camden
Oct. 25 - Del Mar at Westmont
Nov. 1 - Leigh at Leigh
Nov. 8 - Blackford at Westmont
Nov. 15 - Campbell at Campbell
Nov. 22 - Los Gatos at Westmont
Nov. 28 - Branham at Branham

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

The first annual report in 1854 of The Children's Aid Society of New York predicted future problems with the neglected class of Catholic immigrant children of the city:

"...there are no dangers to the value of property or to our permanency of our institutions so great as those from the existence of such a class of vagabond, ignorant, and ungoverned children. This dangerous class has not begun to show itself as it will in 8 or 10 years when these boys and girls are matured....They will poison society. They will perhaps be embittered at the wealth and luxuries they never share. Then let society beware,...".

In exactly nine years a New York newspaper had this editorial comment concerning the riots by Irish masses to protest the Civil War draft:

"....Those terrible days in July--the sudden appearance,.., of a most infuriated and degraded mob; the helplessness of property owners and the better classes...; the sky lurid with conflagrations; the inconceivable barbarity and ferocity of the crowd...; the immense destruction of property were the first dreadful revelations to many of our people of the existence among us of a great, ignorant, irresponsible class, who were growing up without any permanent interest in the welfare of the community...".

With only slightly changed wording, the above report and editorial could be reprinted today. A decade ago, a few detected the formation of a Negro class growing up in our northern cities which would some day seek to assert its power through the use of violence. And ten years later it happened; in Newark, Watts, Detroit and Washington.

Detroit was a well-run city. Its employment rate was high, industry was booming, and the liberal trade union movement had progressed to almost the ultimate in organization. Negroes held responsible positions in the community, with two representing the area in Congress. The police force was well-equipped with a solid program to avert violence.

Daniel P. Moynihan, professor at MIT and Harvard, and a lifelong liberal Democrat recently wrote his opinion that the riot was begun by what sociologists would describe as an "urban under class".

During the Detroit riots, one middle-aged Negro said on television: "You don't see a family man out here." What he meant was obvious. It was the group which had grown up without the dignity of family life, which had never known anything but depression and dependency upon welfare and crime, a group that society never reached and doesn't know how to reach.

A special study of "The Detroit Low Income Negro Family" shows that nearly one-third of Detroit Negroes under 18 live in broken homes and twenty percent of Detroit area non-white females are divorced or separated from their husbands. It also shows an alarming rate of illegitimacy. So the Detroit Negro community was split. On one hand was a large and growing group which had made real progress, but on the other hand there was the "urban under class" which was sinking deeper into despair.

The signs which eventually lead to riot and lawlessness are usually there for discerning citizens to read. In the future will we notice those signs and do something about them before it is too late?

WV College enrollment reaches 7818

This includes 4,450 regular day students and 3,368 extended day or evening students. Compared with an approximate date last year, the figures then were 3,776 day students and 3,363 extended day students, for an estimated 10 per cent increase this year over last.

Dr. Hall also has pointed out that, with late registration continuing, it is assumed that at least another 300 students will register in the extended day division.

In this same connection, Dr. Hall told the trustees that classes are ready to start on the new Saratoga campus. Robert E. Arnold, dean of campus facilities, said that only minor items remained to be completed in the $2,000 Engineering-Technology Building, first structure on the new campus.

Dr. Hall also pointed out that, despite the high cost of the building, construction had proceeded so well that it had been necessary to make a total of only 15 changes in specifications, at a total additional cost of $1,590.

The Board also:

–Approved claims totaling $298,572.56.

–Approved appointment of 36 additional extended day and part-time hourly faculty members, and approved salary step increases for 28 permanent faculty members, probationary members, and nine new faculty members. Two regular day faculty members were likewise appointed, Mrs. Evelyn Weisberg, Home Economics, and Miss Ann Walsh, Art.

–Approved leases for use of Spartan Stadium on Nov. 16, for a football game with DeAnza College, and the Buck Shaw Stadium for three other other home games, as well as Fiesta Lanes Bowling Alley for use by two bowling classes in the physical education department.

–Approved an agreement with the Community Hospital of Los Gatos-Saratoga for furnishing training facilities for the Licensed Vocational Nursing Program.
